PRAYING FOR EACH OTHER (RSV)

1:40 Psalm 63:1 (KJV) O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee,

1:55 Mark 1:35 And in the morning, a great while before day, he rose and went out to a lonely place, and there he prayed.

2:15 Acts 6:2 And the twelve summoned the body of the disciples and said, "It is not right that we should give up preaching the word of God to serve tables. Reference, quote from Martin Luther – "I am so busy and I have so much to do, that I cannot possibly go through a day without devoting at least three hours to prayer." Reference quote from John Wesley – "God only works in response to prayer."

Teaching – Prayer is to the Christina life, what breath is to the body. Prayer is the intimate link between the Father and ourselves. Prayer is more listening than speaking.

4:15 Hebrews 11:6 And without faith it is impossible to please him. For whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him.

Teaching – prayer is the evidence that we believe he is seeking us and will receive us, that he will listen to us, and that we can make a difference in what happens.
